General guidelines

- Students should dress appropriately and professionally while on campus. Clothes that are too revealing are not appropriate for the learning environment.
- Cell phone use, including making calls, sending text messages, browsing the internet, accessing social media, playing games, or engaging in non-academic activities, is strictly prohibited during class time.
- Students should keep their cell phones turned off or on silent mode and stored securely in their bags during class time, unless instructed otherwise by a teacher for a specific academic purpose.
- Students may use their cell phones for academic purposes only when explicitly permitted by a teacher or in accordance with specific classroom activities.
- Students are expected to demonstrate good conduct at all times. No disruptive behaviour, bullying, harassment, dishonesty, or violation of school policies, will be tolerated.
- Students are prohibited from eating in the classroom.
- Students are not allowed to tamper with or cause any damage to the smart boards in the classroom. Respect for the school's resources and technology is essential to ensure their availability for effective teaching and learning
- Students are advised to actively utilize the student portal, the Learning Management System (LMS) for important announcements, assignments, course materials, and other educational resources. The student portal serves as a valuable tool for staying informed, engaging in coursework, and maximizing academic success. Students can see their daily attendance record through the student's portal.
- Students will be given an official email id and all correspondence from the school will be on that email id. Students are required to check their mail regularly.
- The Director & the faculty members are here for you and are committed to supporting your academic journey. However, they have busy schedules so please meet them at the designated times.
- Students should heed all deadlines given by the School and the University.
